"The LEADER'S EDGE" by dr. michael bell

There's a lot to be said for the power of consistency. Have you ever heard the phrase "consistent action leads to consistent results?" Whether you're talking about the sacred or the secular, the Church or culture, the marketplace or the public square, it takes consistency if you're going to accomplish your dreams. To put it another way, if you don't stick with it – forget it. It's not enough to start out good or even to do well for a hot minute or two if somewhere along the way you drop out of the race, take a detour, throw in the towel and quit, deciding the commitment called for more than you were willing to give.

count the Church's Mission and Vision Statements. This type of leader is a Nightmare On Any Street!

Inconsistency is the seedbed for the death of a Church. Let a little inconsistency creep into a Church, and it won't be long before complacency sets in and apathy rears its head. When Church leaders are inconsistent our leadership is less effective. Inconsistency is an Achilles heel for many leaders, and can even compromise the mission and ministries of the Church.

Some of the common areas in which we tend to be inconsistent are:

1. Not following through on commitments. We make commitments, promises, claims, and decrees, but seldom follow through. This is a problem of inconsistency. As a coach of other leaders, I've seen the effects of inconsistent leadership. As a pastor, I've seen the consequences of inconsistent ministry leaders. You know what's really frustrating? Leaders who swear up and down that they are committed to leading their ministry but fail to follow through on anything they've said they would do.

2. Not maintaining your mission and vision. When you as the leader and you neglect the Church's mission and vision, you're guilty of inconsistency. One of the most detrimental leader in any Church is the solo leader who has gone rogue. What do I mean? I'm talking about the leader who refuses to be shepherded and is determined to mis-lead the small group or ministry he or she has been assigned to lead by ignoring Church protocol, not paying attention to leadership criteria, and dis-

3. Not mentoring those you minister alongside. Mentoring people is part of your mandate as an effective leader. If you're a small group or Sunday School teacher, you should be mentoring a future teacher. If you are a deacon, who are you mentoring?

A leader must be predictable, as consistency and predictability are positive traits that provide stability for the institution, group or organization. Consistency builds trust. As a successful leader your word must be trusted. If you say you're going to do something, you have to do it. If you plan to meet somewhere, you need to be there. When an individual in a leadership position doesn't act or behave in a consistent manner, the people around him or her don't know what to expect.

Here are three key areas where consistency makes the difference between bad, good, and great leadership: (A) Consistency of Time. Understanding the value of your time and everyone else's time matters. (B) Consistency of Study. Leaders never stop learning and learners never stop studying. Once you think you know all you need to know you are arrogant and irrelevant. (C) Consistency of Authenticity. To phrase it another way, always be genuine and real.

ISAIAH 40:31

<sup>31</sup> BUT THEY THAT WAIT UPON THE LORD SHALL RENEW THEIR STRENGTH; THEY SHALL MOUNT UP WITH WINGS AS EAGLES; THEY SHALL RUN, AND NOT BE WEARY; AND THEY SHALL WALK, AND NOT FAINT. KJV

"Speak Life Thought" with First Lady & Co-Pastor Yolanda G. Butler

"A Life Planted By Rivers of Living Water"

"On the last day, that great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried out saying, 'If anyone thirsts, let him come to Me and drink. He who believes in Me, as the Scripture has said, out of his heart will flow rivers of living water.' But this He spoke concerning the Spirit, whom those believing in Him would receive; for the Holy Spirit was not yet given, because Jesus was not yet glorified." John 7:37-39 NKJV

We recently had our Annual Convocation in which churches and ministries from across various states gathered for a time of refreshing, encouragement, strengthening and renewal. On the last day of Convocation, our praise team sang an upbeat toe-tapper song entitled "It's For My Good." The power of the Holy Spirit came in so mightily that many were slain in the Spirit and lay at the altar, including yours truly. As I laid there at the altar, I had a vision that I was lying in a pool of water. It was very serene, calm, beautiful and peaceful. The water was moving in a circular motion and iridescent light illuminated upon the water. The Holy Spirit was quick to reveal to me that I was lying in the life-giving flow of the presence of the Lord. I began to physically yet gently place my hands in a cup-like fashion and began lifting up the spiritual water, pouring it on and over my head towards my back in an attempt to cover my entire body. My spirit began to cry out the very words from the song, "It was all for my good." The Holy Spirit was revealing to me through the Word of God that everything our ministry and family had endured over the years, the good days and the bad days, has brought us to this day, and it was all for our good. I could hear directives from the Holy Spirit as to my next assignments. Holy Spirit became my source of Living Water providing the Word of Life that would bring forth a Kingdom impact.

In the passage of Scripture above, Jesus was informing His disciples that after His ascension the Holy Spirit would descend to bring life-giving flow into the life of the born-again believer that would refresh and satisfy. Water, as we know, is a necessary commodity for life more than food. Lack of water will cause the body to decline and be susceptible to decay and disease. Fruitfulness is God's purpose for all His children who receive His Holy Spirit. Water symbolizes the Holy Spirit and its picture is always one of abundance. When you allow the Holy Spirit to freely flow as a channel in your life, you reap the benefit of bearing fruit for the Kingdom and everything you do will prosper. "He shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water that bring forth its fruit in its season, whose leaf also shall not wither, and whatever he does shall prosper. (Ps. 1:3 NKJV) The river represents the Holy Spirit's life-giving force that is available to the born again believer. You would do well to every day seek to be refreshed from the Source that abundantly sustains life. I pray that you become determined to become rooted in God by Christ Jesus that is planted by rivers of Living Water of the Holy Spirit and begin to demonstrate the Kingdom of God to its fullest.

BMATC Hymn Festival Black Musician Association of Tarrant County

Hymn Festival Choir

On Sunday, October 21st the Black Musicians Association of Tarrant County (BMATC) presented a Hymn Festival entitled "Lift Hymn Up" in the beautiful sanctuary of the Carter Metropolitan CME Church. The hallowed rafters reverberated with the fervent articulate sound of the profoundly anointed and gifted singers who raised their voices in jubilant praise.

Carl Kenerly, Fine Arts Director of BMATC opened the festival with a medley of hymns that created the ambiance for a dynamic evening of hymn singing. Pastor McKinley Jackson, Jr. served as Master of Ceremony and being a musical prodigy himself navigated the festival with a prolific approach. The hymn festival featured some of the past BMATC Legends of Gospel in the persons of Madame Carrie Roberson, Mr. Jack C. Carter,

Carl Kenerly

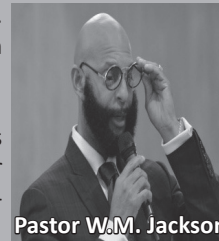

Mr. Mark E. Davis, Rev. Joe Foster, Mr. U.L. Rivers and Mr. Andre Washington; these legendary presenters phenomenally enlivened the choir during rehearsals and invigorated the waiting congregation during the festival service. Special guest hymnists included Mrs. Sandra Moore Cato and Mrs. Roslyn Woodard. The prodigious Forest Hill Ushers Union served as Keepers of the doors.

Forest Hill Ushers Union

The Board of Directors of BMATC extends accolades and gratitude to the singers and musicians who participated in the choir, the accompanists, our legendary presenters, our financial supporters, the Forest Hill Community Bible Church, Carter Metropolitan CME Church, Forest Hill Ushers Union, Rev. McKinley Jackson, and every person who was in attendance at the hymn festival.

The BMATC is a 501c3 organization; the proceeds of this event will be used to fund scholarships for African American students pursuing a music degree in Music Education or Music Performance.

Dr. C. L. Perkins and Meadowbrook First Baptist Church will be celebrating our 25th Church Anniversary on November 19th @ 4 PM

Dr. Perkins is the Senior Pastor and Founder of Meadowbrook First Baptist Church. We are thankful to God for this man of God, who has been dedicated and faithful in the service of the Lord. He also is a faithful and loving husband and father, a Scholar in the Word of God, a mentor, a leader and a dynamic shepherd. Our Pastor teaches and preaches under a powerful anointing that strengthens, causes deliverance, and repairs the broken hearted. The message that God gives him brings about growth and maturity throughout the church body. He is a man that exemplifies true genuine love toward all humanity. Pastor is a faithful father figure to some and a dear friend to others. From his teachings we the members have developed a sure foundation in the Word of God.

We also give recognition to his wife Dr. Maudett Perkins, who works diligently by her husband side. Dr. M. Perkins has developed many ministries such as the Harvest Time Food Pantry, tutoring programs for adults and children, bible study classes, and the summer food program, where she feeds the community. She is engaged in different outreach programs to help advance the kingdom of God. God truly has blessed Meadowbrook First Baptist Church with leaders who are loving and kind and they are both concerned about His people.

Please come out and help us honor this man and woman of God.

Church Anniversary is November 19, 2018 @ 4 pm.

....."SINGING AND THANKING"

I absolutely love what is about to happen musically for the next 60 days. November starts the holiday specific songs we'll hear celebrating our Sovereign God and His blameless Son for their love and sacrifice. Thanksgiving, followed by Christmas, gives the Christian many reasons to praise God through special programs filled with songs of adoration. We can thank President Abraham Lincoln who, after signing the Emancipation Proclamation in Jan. of 1863, continued doing 'the right thing' by declaring a Thursday in Nov. Thanksgiving Day! God definitely used Bro Abe and for this we are grateful. Now, to all you choir directors and soloists looking for the apropos music to fit the month, here are the standard, forgotten and new songs to consider ministering. The rest of you should check them out just to get ready!

Let's begin with Executive Worship Pastor Earl Bynum of mega church, The Mount, who just released on his new project, "This Song Is for You". Earl is bringing his worship style with a swing beat that definitely honors God. I am certain that most choirs can summon up Walter Hawkins' "Be Grateful" and Bishop Hez' "Grateful" in a heartbeat during prayer time. And whether you sing Judah Band's "More Than I Ever Expected" in the recorded tempo or bump it up to cut-time/COGIC style, it will be on time for this and any season. Pull up the Sounds of Blackness "We Give You Thanks" and Kurt Carr's "For Every Mountain" to offer the congregation some real precious throwbacks. And while you're reminiscing, take another listen to "Thank You" by Milton Brunson's Tommies led by the amazing Kim McFarland. Then have one good rehearsal for Leonard Burks' "Every Day is a Day of Thanksgiving" or Joseph Price's "Lord I Thank You for These Blessings".

Praise and Worship will be lit with God's presence when "Lord You Are Good" from Worship Pastor Todd Galberth is ministered. A sing-along atmosphere of corporate worship is certain. Add to the set Andrae Crouch's timeless "My Tribute/To God Be the Glory" with JJ Hairston's "You Deserve It" and it's a wrap. Soloists you will truly bless the body if you can reach way down to minister the soul-stirring, heart wrenching "Dear God" by Smokie Norful. Help us all to make it very personal and thank God for our lives....Jesus!!!

Finally, one of my favorite songs from one of my most favorite singers is "I Want to Say Thank You" by first lady Lisa Page Brooks. Many listeners have credited this song with saving them from thoughts of suicide and dark times in life. Let it minister to you as you recall all those things God brought you through and to. Then, just say Thank You! In these times, may the guidance of Psalm 69:30 stay on your mind and the spirit of Rev 11:17 stay in your heart.

And May Peace be your Journey

Lost but Found

Mark 10:46-52

1. Introduction

It has been stated by the great songwriter John Newton that he was a great sinner, but Christ is a great Savior. On March 21, 1748, John Newton became a changed man. He recognized that God could take a rude, profane, slave-trading sailor and transform him into a child of God. John Newton had a reputation as a very rough sailor with a fowl mouth. It was on the slave ship named Greyhound, that the Lord rescued John Newton. The turmoil on the Greyhound was gut-wrenching and thought-provoking. It looked like all was lost. The ship was tossed and driven by an angry wind. Out of nowhere God stepped in and the ship did not perish. I am sure when John Newton surveyed the canvas of his life, he felt his life was like the fate of that ship. Later, John Newton wrote the most famous hymn of all time, "Amazing Grace." "I once was lost but now I am found."

The song, Amazing Grace is song in nearly every church in America. It has been widely published throughout the annals of time. The words bring great relief to a sinner lost on the seashores of life. In Romans 3:10, we are reminded that we have all sinned and come short of the glory of God. As humans, we are challenged with the sin nature at birth. We come into this world lost in sin and in dire need of a Savior. John Newton is not the only one that needed a Savior. All have sinned, and everybody stands in need of salvation. If you are reading this article, there is good news. There is a cure for man's lost condition. Jesus can save from the gutter most to the uttermost.

Have you ever been lost while driving your car? How did you feel? The issue of being lost is a miserable condition. Well, allow me to comfort the common student of driving. If one can find the right compass, then one can find right direction for one's life. Our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ is the right compass for lost sinners in this world. Will you allow the Lord to navigate your life so that you can avoid the penalty of sin? Life without God is like a ship that is out on the raging sea with no help in sight. Today, we thank the Lord for the life of John Newton. Although, he experienced a life changing moment on the sea, we can experience a life changing moment on the dry land of America.

As we delve into the text, we will find that a man was blind from birth, but the Lord worked it out for him. Let's see how the Lord worked it out for blind Bartimaeus.

2. The Blind Man's Condition, v.46-48

In these verses we find that a man is born blind from birth. How tragic it is for one to have never seen the light of day! This man's name was Bartimaeus and he had a condition that left him begging for help. We must be careful how we treat those of society that are left to beg for help. We must be careful how we treat that caravan of Central American migrants that are seeking a better day for their families in America. The group has already travelled about 30 miles per day since forming in Honduras. Many of these Central American migrants are fleeing the violence and widespread poverty in their country. We must find a peaceable way to allow these migrants to apply for refugee status and continue their journey.

As we take a deeper look at the blind beggar, we ascertain that he couldn't work for a living. He had to beg. I am sure that when one cannot work, it is a miserable condition. Everyone that is out of work is not seeking a hand-out, but some may just desire a hand up. If we could insure that our children could get an education, then we could position our children for a better day. There are a lot of blind people in America today. People are blind when racist antics are tolerated and sometimes encouraged by some people in our country. We are lost and walking in darkness when we fail to meet the needs of those who truly need help. When blind Bartimaeus heard that Jesus was passing by, he cried out for help. Our Lord hears us when we cry unto Him. Our God is an able God that can perform miracles in our lives. Blind Bartimaeus knew that if he could get in touch with Jesus, everything would be alright. The plea for help is observed in Mark 10:47. The blind man began to shout, "Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!" There is a cry in our country for help and compassion. There are hurting people everywhere along the shoreline of life. There is hope for the hopeless!

3. The Blind Man's Comfort, v. 49-50

It is good to know that if we call on the Lord, then the Lord can answer our prayers. The blind man called upon the Lord to have mercy on him. In verse 49, Jesus stopped walking and said, "Call him." The bible informs us that they spoke to the blind man and said, "Cheer up." On your feet! He's calling you. The people around this blind man had some compassion for this blind beggar. They gave blind Bartimaeus some good news. Jesus is calling you. Anytime the Lord hears our prayer request, He can make a difference in our lives. In verse 50, we find that the blind man threw his cloak to the ground and came to Jesus. How did you come to the Lord? One song writer tells us, that I was weary, wounded, and sad. I found a resting place in my Lord. If we cast our burdens upon the Lord, then He will be a sweet old resting place. Have you made your prayer request known unto the Lord? Blind Bartimaeus received some comfort when the Lord told him to come unto Him.

4. The Blind Man's Cure, v. 51-52

In verse 51, we find that Jesus asked blind Bartimaeus a question. "What do you want me to do for you?" The blind man said, "Rabbi, I want to see." When we approach the Lord in faith, our God will respond to our faith. Have you sought the Lord in faith? Do you believe that God is able? When we look at verse 52, we find that Jesus informs the blind man that his faith has healed him. This is good news to know that faith can move mountains in our lives. Our faith can move the mountains of despair, discouragement, and a defeated lifestyle.

When the blind man received his sight, we find that he followed Jesus along the road. When the Lord saves us from our sins, we will want to follow the Lord. When the Lord saves us, we will have a new talk and a new walk. If the Lord has done something for you, then you will experience a change in your conduct, character, and life's conditions. It doesn't matter what the problems may be, our Lord can change your life for the better. Let's encourage each other in the faith because faith gave blind Bartimaeus his sight. We walk by faith and not by sight. Let's continue to walk the good walk of faith and get ready to be delivered from life's struggles!

MARTIN LUTHER KING III HOLDS "GET OUT THE VOTE" RALLY AT BETH-EDEN MISSIONARY BAPTIST CHURCH, FORT WORTH

On Sunday, November 4, 2018, 10:30 a.m., Martin Luther King III will be in Fort Worth, Texas for a "Get Out the Vote" Rally ahead of the midterm elections on November 6. This event will be held at Beth-Eden Missionary Baptist Church, 3208 Wilbarger Street, Fort Worth, Texas. Dr. B. R. Daniels, Sr. is the Senior Pastor.

Martin Luther King III, the oldest son of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. and Coretta Scott King, is working in conjunction with the Democratic National Committee to educate and motivate people to vote for Democrats up and down the ticket. Mr. King is currently president of The King Center in Atlanta, Georgia. He previously served as the fourth president of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference founded by his father. He has also served on the Fulton County, Georgia, Board of Commissioners.

Local candidates running for office, democrats and republicans, will be in attendance. A press conference and reception will follow the "Get Out the Vote" Rally.

Dr. Daniels encourages you to come hear what Martin Luther King III has to say about the importance of this midterm election and to bring others with you.

For more information about this event, please contact our Communications Ministry Director, Carolyn Roberts, at (817) 584-8577.
